QA Automation Engineer

- Join a team that designs and implements software of embedded devices and systems from requirements to production and commercial deployment, including customers/manufacturing applications (hosts)
- Create detailed requirements and design specifications based on input from product requirements specifications, Develop, Code and Test system
- Review code and design
- Interface with hardware design and development
- Working in corporation with the software departments in Israel and abroad.

Requirements:

- Degree Computer Science/Software Engineering, or equivalent relevant experience.
- At least 2 years of C# / Java / Python experience
- Ability to translate software requirements into design specifications.
- Strong bug detection abilities and good analysis to root cause detection.
- Design a test plan for correctress, stress, and disaster recovery. Mainly Regression Tests for both products and GUI applications.
- Strong communication skills to convey information clearly and accurately
- Experience with testing frameworks and writing automation tests. - advantage

Irena.Skorych@emerson.com :להגשת מועמדות